

VISIT TO THE PLUMBING MUSEUM & WORKSHOP AT AMBERLEY MUSEUM

15 APRIL 2026

Join the Worshipful Company of Plumbers at a special trip to Amberley Museum

The Master Sandra Raine and her consort Ian request the pleasure of your company for a fascinating day at Amberley Museum. This joint visit with the History Group, includes an exclusive hands on tour of the plumbing workshop

Our Day at Amberley

- Tea/Coffee (10 - 10:30)
- Welcome from the Master
- Introduction to the Museum from Mike Swallow PMWT Chair
- History Group - Michael Cooper
- Illustrated talk on Stained Glass from Sarah Knighton
- Group to split into 2 to follow 2 workshops - before and after lunch
- Workshop 1 - Hands on Lead Casting in the plumbers workshop (aka the Gin Building)
- Workshop 2 - Demonstration of Glass making
- Lunch
- Exclusive Bus Ride
- Free to explore the rest of the museum at leisure until museum closes at 4:30pm

Our Guest Speaker - Sarah Knighton

Sarah will be giving us an illustrated talk on Stained Glass, followed by a hands on workshop. She is the Studio Manager and Senior Stained Glass Conservator, Painter and Glazier at Holy Well Glass www.holywellglass.com in the cathedral city of Wells, where she has worked since 2008. In 2018 she was awarded the Glaziers' Company "New glass artist of the year"

Cost includes entry, tea/coffee, demonstrations and lunch £49.

Amberley Museum is directly opposite Amberley Railway station and free parking is available by registration of your car registration on arrival at Amberley

Bookings open - closing date for bookings is Friday 10th April 2026

